JUSTICE COURT VACANCY ANNOUNCED FOR FARR WEST

Farr West, Utah—Applications are being accepted for a justice court judge position that will serve Farr West, Utah. The position will replace Judge Patrick Lambert who will retire in July.

To be considered for a justice court judgeship in Weber County, candidates must be at least 25 years of age, a citizen of the United States, a Utah resident for at least three years, and have a degree from a law school that would make one eligible to apply for admission to a bar in any state in the United States. In addition, candidates must be a resident of Weber County or an adjacent county for at least six months immediately preceding appointment.

Information on judicial retention and performance evaluation is posted on the Utah State Court’s website at www.utcourts.gov under employment opportunities. An application for judicial office form must be completed and is available on the court’s website (www.utcourts.gov/admin/jobs). The salary range for the position is $10,533 to $18,959 per year and does not include benefits. For additional information, contact Andrea Zweifel, Farr West City Clerk, at (801) 731-4187.

The deadline for applications is Monday, July 26, 2021 at 5 p.m. and should be sent to the attention of Amy Hernandez, Administrative Office of the Courts, P.O. Box 140241, Salt Lake City, UT, 84114-0241. For an application or information, email amymh@utcourts.gov.

Utah law requires the Judicial Nominating Commission to submit three to five nominees to Lee Dickemore, Farr West City Mayor, within 45 days of its first meeting. Mayor Dickemore will then have 30 days in which to make a selection. The selection must then be certified by the Utah Judicial Council.
