

Explanatory Note

When properly filled out, the following Statement of Defendant in Support of Guilty Plea contains all the requirements of Rule 11(e), Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure. IN THE _____ JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
_____ COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

STATE OF UTAH, : STATEMENT OF DEFENDANT IN SUPPORT OF PLEA(S) AND

Plaintiff, : CERTIFICATE OF COUNSEL

vs. : Case No. _____

Defendant. :

I, _____, hereby acknowledge and certify that I have been advised of and that I understand the following facts and rights:

Notification of Charges

I am pleading guilty or no contest to the following crimes:

	Crime & Statutory Provision	Degree	Punishment Min/Max and/or Minimum Mandatory
A.	_____	_____	_____
	_____		_____
B.	_____	_____	_____
	_____		_____
C.	_____	_____	_____

that I might later, if the judge determines I was able, be required to pay for the appointed lawyer's service to me.

I (have not) (have) waived my right to counsel. If I have waived my right to counsel, I have done so knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily for the following reasons:

If I have waived my right to counsel, I certify that I have read this statement and that I understand the nature and elements of the charge(s) and crime(s) to which I am pleading guilty (or no contest). I also understand my rights in this case and other cases and the consequences of my guilty (or no contest) plea(s).

If I have not waived my right to counsel, my attorney is _____. My attorney and I have fully discussed this statement, my rights, and the consequences of my guilty (or no contest) plea(s).

Jury Trial. I know that I have a right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial (unbiased) jury and that I will be giving up that right by pleading guilty (or no contest).

Confrontation and cross-examination of witnesses. I know that if I were to have a trial, a) I would have the right to see and observe the witnesses who testify against me and b) my attorney, or myself if I waived my right to an attorney, would have the opportunity to cross-examine all of the witnesses who testify against me.

Right to compel witnesses. I know that if I were to have a trial, I could call witnesses if I chose to, and I would be able to obtain subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of those witnesses. If I could not afford to pay for the witnesses to appear, the State would pay those costs.

Right to testify and privilege against self-incrimination. I know that if I were to have a trial, I would have the right to testify on my own behalf. I also know that if I chose not to testify, no one could make me testify or make me give evidence against myself. I also know that if I chose not to testify, the jury would be told that they could not hold my refusal to testify against me.

Presumption of innocence and burden of proof. I know that if I do not plead guilty (or no contest), I am presumed innocent until the State proves that I am guilty of the charged crime(s). If I choose to fight the charges against me, I need only plead "not guilty," and my case will be set for a trial. At a trial, the State would have the burden of proving each element of the charge(s) beyond a reasonable doubt. If the trial is before a jury, the verdict must be unanimous, meaning each juror would have to find me guilty.

I understand that if I plead guilty (or no contest), I give up the presumption of innocence and will be admitting that I committed the crime(s) stated above.

Appeal. I know that under the Utah Constitution, if I were convicted by a jury or judge, I would have the right to appeal my conviction and sentence. If I could not afford the costs of an appeal, the State would pay those costs for me. I understand I am giving up my right to appeal my conviction if I plead guilty (or no contest). I understand if I wish to appeal my sentence I must file a notice of appeal within 30 days after my sentence is entered.

I know and understand that by pleading guilty (or no contest), I am waiving and giving up all the statutory and constitutional rights as explained above.

Consequences of Entering a Guilty (or No Contest) Plea

Potential penalties. I know the maximum sentence that may be imposed for each crime to which I am pleading guilty (or no contest). I know that by pleading guilty (or no contest) to a crime that carries a mandatory penalty, I will be subjecting myself to serving a mandatory penalty for the crime. I know my sentence may include a prison term, fine, or both.

I know that in addition to a fine, a ninety percent (90%) surcharge will be imposed. I also know that I may be ordered to make restitution to any victim(s) of my crime(s), including any restitution that may be owed on charges that are dismissed as part of a plea agreement.

Consecutive/concurrent prison terms. I know that if there is more than one crime involved, the sentences may be imposed one after another (consecutively), or they may run at the same time (concurrently). I know I may be charged an additional fine for each crime I plead to. I also know if I am on probation or parole, or awaiting sentencing on another offense of which I have been convicted or to which I have pled guilty (or no contest), my guilty (or no contest) plea(s) now may result in consecutive sentences being imposed on me. If the offense to which I am now pleading guilty occurred when I was imprisoned or on parole, I know the law requires the court to impose consecutive sentences unless the court finds and states on the record that consecutive sentences would be inappropriate.

Plea agreement. My guilty (or no contest) plea(s) (is/are) (is/are not) the result of a plea agreement between myself and the prosecuting attorney. All the promises, duties, and provisions of the plea agreement, if any, are fully contained in this statement, including those explained below:

Trial judge not bound. I know that any charge or sentencing concession or recommendation of probation or suspended sentence, including a reduction of the charges for sentencing, made or sought by either defense counsel or the prosecuting attorney are not binding on the judge. I also know that any opinions they express to me as to what they believe the judge may do are not binding on the judge.

Immigration/Deportation: I understand that if I am not a United States citizen, my plea(s) today may, or even will, subject me to deportation under United States immigration laws and regulations, or otherwise adversely affect my immigration status, which may include permanently barring my re-entry into the United States. I understand that if I have questions about the effect of my plea(s) on my immigration status, I should consult with an immigration attorney.

Defendant's Certification of Voluntariness

I am entering my plea(s) of my own free will and choice. No force, threats, or unlawful influence of any kind have been made to get me to plead guilty (or no contest). No promises except those contained in this statement have been made to me.

I have read this statement, or I have had it read to me by my attorney, and I understand its contents and adopt each statement in it as my own. I know that I am free to change or delete anything contained in this statement, but I do not wish to make any changes because all of the statements are correct.

I am satisfied with the advice and assistance of my attorney.

I am ____ years of age. I have attended school through the ____ grade. I can read and understand the English language. If I do not understand English, an interpreter has been provided to me. I was not under the influence of any drugs, medication, or intoxicants that would impair my judgment when I decided to plead guilty (or no contest). I am not presently under the influence of any drug, medication, or intoxicants that impair my judgment.

I believe myself to be of sound and discerning mind and to be mentally capable of understanding these proceedings and the consequences of my plea(s). I am free of any mental disease, defect, or impairment that would prevent me from understanding what I am doing or from knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily entering my plea(s).

I understand that if I want to withdraw my guilty (or no contest) plea(s), I must file a written motion to withdraw my plea(s) before sentence is announced. I understand that for a plea held in abeyance, a motion to withdraw from the plea agreement must be made within 30 days of pleading guilty or no contest. I will only be allowed to withdraw my plea if I show that it was not knowingly and voluntarily made. I understand that any challenge to my plea(s) made after sentencing must be pursued under the Post-Conviction Remedies Act in Title 78B, Chapter 9, and Rule 65C of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.
